

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

EXTRA SELLING AT

Louis Friedmann & Co.'s

3500 Yards Figured Lawns,

regular 5c values, as many yards as you wish at 10 yards for 35c

100 Ladies' Wash Skirts,

will be sacrificed in Monday's sale. Were received late and in order to close them out quickly we will sell them at 98c, $1.23, $1.48, $1.67 and $1.98 each.

100 Linen Finished Sheets size 81x90 worth 60c, at 49c

25 Bed Spreads, worth $1.25, full size, extra heavy weight, at 98c

70 Dozen Extra Large Towels, regular 15c values, only 10c

200 Girdle Corsets in two styles, only 25c

25 Bed Spreads full size, regular $1.50 values, at $1.19

200 Bleached Sheets 81x90, regular 70c values, only 59c

200 Pillow Cases, regular 15c values, only 12 1-2c

50 Dozen Towels, regular 10c values, at 2 for 15c

1000 Yards Figured Lawns, 10c values, at 7 1-2c

75 Ladies' Shirt Waist, regular 75c values, only 49c

50 Dozen Ladies' 10c Vest, at 3 for 25c

1000 Yards Platt Val Laces, 15 and 20c values, the yard, only 10c

LOUIS FRIEDMAN & CO.'S

OLD ESCAMBIA COUNTY FAMILIES

THE KELLEY FAMILY

..By..
Professor
I. E. ALLEN

PROF. I. E. ALLEN

Rebecca Folks was born in South Carolina, March 9, 1817. At a very early age she united herself with the Methodist church, and was a faithful worker in the same during her life. At the age of 18 she was married to John T. Kelley. Twelve children were born to them, six of whom are now living—Mary, Nancy, Joseph, John, Fanny and Florence.

I became acquainted with the Kelleys at Milton in 1859. All of the children were my pupils with the exception of Florence, who was too young.

It has been said an honest man is the noblest work of God, but I am compelled to think that a woman who lives a true Christian life and rears a family of children is decidedly a man's superior. Such was Mrs. Rebecca Kelley, the subject of this sketch. She lived for her Savior, her husband, her children and friends. Meet Mrs. Kelley when you would, she always had a sweet smile and a kind word. Her strong faith in her Redeemer seemed to permeate her whole life.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Kelley lived around with her daughters, who vied with each other in trying to have her company. While staying with her youngest child, Mrs. Florence Barker, at Roberts, she suddenly passed away like falling into a gentle slumber.

On March 9th of this year, after the children had gone to school, Mrs. Barker went, as usual, to carry her mother's breakfast to her. She returned to the kitchen for some trifle, and when she came back she found her mother had passed away without a struggle. So came death to one who had lived a pure Christian life. So passed away a lady that was never heard to speak a word of harm about any person or complain at any misfortune.

She passed away on her 89th birthday, March 9, 1906.

I. E. ALLEN.

A HAPPY MOTHER

will see that her baby is properly cared for—to do this a good purgative is necessary. Many babies suffer from worms and their mothers don't know it—if your baby is feverish and doesn't sleep at night, it is troubled with worms. White's Cream Vermifuge will clean out these worms in a mild pleasant way. Once tried always used. Give it a trial. Price 25 cents.

FRATERNAL SOCIETY ESTABLISHED AGENCY HERE

One of the best fraternal societies in the country, The Modern Workmen of the World, has recently established an agency in our city. This society furnishes first class protection in case of sickness, accident or death at reasonable rate. Old Age Benefits, Paid Up Certificates, and Cash Withdrawals are also special features of this society. A local assembly is to be organized in Pensacola as soon as possible. For further information call on the organizer, Henry R. Wentworth, 323 W. Zarragossa street, of this city.

STATE PRESS COMMENT ON RECENT PRIMARY

One Editor's Defeat.

The "Short Talks" man of the Times-Union perpetrates the following at the expense of the editor of the Starke Telegraph: "Wonder if the editorial fraternity of Florida will not feel like reading out of their ranks the editor the Bradford County Telegraph, E. S. Matthews, now that he has become a bank official. It's a departure from the tradition of the profession to have money enough for that. Editor Matthews may expect a heresy trial as soon as the association meets." Editor Love, of the Quincy Herald-Era, sold out to go into the banking business. But when another editor ran for office and proposed to pay for publishing his announcement, he was accused of being a corporationist.—Lake City Index. So he was. The editor who made his announcement in the newspapers at contract prices and accompanied the same with his check and threw no stones at his opponent was defeated. The man who pelted his opponent in the back with stones got the plum. The mills of the gods sometimes grind strangely.—Ocala Banner.

Primary Too Early.

The next time, the State Executive Committee calls a primary this early, they ought to "shot on the spot." Heaven only knows what possessed them to do it this time, for it was a senseless act.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Violations of Law.

From all over the state comes the cry that violations of the law, in one form or another, occurred in some voting precincts in the primaries last week. Some effective means ought to be adopted to stop this, if we are to retain the primary.—Lake City Index.

Necessary Nuisance.

Put the word "personal" right after necessary in the following from the Live Oak Democrat, and it is hereby cordially approved and accepted: "The second primary may be regarded as the merging of a good thing into a necessary nuisance."—Punta Gorda Herald.

Slow Election Returns.

It is not an easy job to compile the figures from all the precincts in each of the counties of the state even when those figures are promptly furnished, but when the returns are slow in coming in definite election news is impossible. That is why the people of Florida have to wait so long after the primary before learning who the successful candidates are. If some man in each precinct of the State would take it upon himself to remain at the polling places until the inspectors have finished the count, and then mark on a ticket the number of votes received by each candidate in that precinct, sending the ticket so marked immediately to the county seat, the result all over the state could be known within twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls.—Madison New Enterprise.

The Political Output.

Sometimes, in weary moments, we cherish the belief that Florida could manage to get on very well if its output of politics was not so large.—Miami Metropolis.

Russia vs. Florida.

The Czar and his Douma are having a monkey and parrot time of it over in St. Petersburg, but until we get through with our second primary here in Florida, we can hardly be expected to look into the merits of the controversy and take sides one way or the other.—Live Oak Democrat.

Results in Leon.

The primary results in Leon county were particularly interesting, in the senatorial contest; the administration candidate carried only one precinct, in which the total vote was eleven, and received less than 25 per cent of the county vote. There were six candidates for the House, the only one chosen being strongly anti-drainage; and the only candidate openly advocating the drainage proposition received only seventeen votes.—St. Augustine Record.

People Demand Fairness.

The time has come when the rule or ruin policy in the interest of any individual will be rebuked in Florida. The people are determined that no nominations or elections shall be secured by unfair means. The last primary proved this fact.—Miami Metropolis.

Integrity of the Ballot.

In a few of the counties of the state there are charges of fraud and irregularity in the holding of the primary elections on the 18th inst. The Telegraph is proud there is ground for no such charges in Bradford county. The integrity of the ballot should be preserved and no less so because the primary is only a party affair.—Starke Telegraph.

The Good and the Bad.

A good fellow is a bad fellow to have in office. At the same time it isn't good to have a bad fellow there either.—Miami Record.

Appleyard's Defeat.

Editor Appleyard takes his defeat for the railroad commissionership in his own infinitely jolly spirit, and will go to work at once to mend up his fences for his old place as secre-

TENTH ANNIVERSARY of the

BANK NOTE CIGAR

The Bank Note Brand made its initial appearance in 1896 and therefore Celebrates its Tenth Anniversary. For ten years it has steadily increased in favor with the smoking public, adding to its laurels year by year until to-day it stands the leader of the popular 5-cent brands sold in West Florida and South Alabama.

Bank Note, as everyone knows, is the brand of Frank Reilly, Pensacola, Fla.

GET THE BEST FOR THE HOME FOLKS

It will keep them well and possibly save a summer trip or a doctors' bill, to say nothing of the pleasure and enjoyment in these summer drinks:

Grape Juice, bottles 30 and 50c
Lemon Juice, bottles 35c
Raspberry Syrup, bottles 25c
Claretade Syrup, bottles 25c
Ginger Ale, per doz $1.25
Ginger Ale, per doz $2.00

SEAT HILL GROCERY CO.

Phone 212 M. F. BOWES, Manager.

tary of the senate, for which he is not likely to have any opposition worth mentioning.—St. Augustine Record.

Office Perpetual?

How long will the state democratic executive committee perpetuate their lease of office, and why were not new members voted for in the last primary?—Ocala Banner.

Howl in Hillsborough.

In the primary quite a howl was set up by the citizens of Hillsborough county. The registration books were not properly written up—supposed to be the fault of the tax collector, as he failed to furnish certified list to the registration officer as required, and numerous citizens were debarred from casting their vote as, in many cases, their receipts had been misplaced and some of the voters returned to homes as far as 7 miles, to get their receipts and returned to the polls to cast their vote.—Arcadia News.

JUST RECEIVED 100 GENUINE IMPORTED PANAMA HATS AT THE M. & C. CLOTHING STORE; $3.50 WORTH $5.00.

WHY NOT HAVE A PIANO?

Your family crave it and possession is very easy indeed. The Clutter Plan, of Easy to Buy, Easy to Pay, has accomplished wonders in the way of possession and enjoyment of pianos in the homes that a few years ago would have been appalled at the thought of undertaking to pay for a piano.

The Clutter Plan Has Helped In Two Ways

It has made it possible to get worthy pianos at moderate prices and inaugurated easy methods for the payments. We handle such famous pianos as the Kranich & Bach, Lester, Packard, Mehlin etc. and guarantee them to you. Delivered into your homes no matter where you live.

Oldest and Largest Music House in Florida
GEO. W. C. CLUTTER, Treas.

Clutter Music House

114-116 S. Palafox St.
Phone 15
PENSACOLA
B. E. CLUTTER, Sec.